NOTICE

There was a picnic given at the Midway Park one night the last week in August by a member of one of the U. B. F. Lodges. The public is under the impression that the said picnic was endorsed by the said Lodge and Temples of the said Lodges and Temples of U. B. F.'s and S. M. T.'s. Not so, this rumor is false. The members of the Lodges and Temples were only guests to the affair. It was supposed to be in honor of the Lodges and Temples. The affair turned out to be a dance unaware to the visitors. We want the public to know that the U. B. F.'s and S. M. T.'s are not giving balls neither taking sides with same. We further denounce the action of said picnic.

For the good of the order,
Francis Evans
305 N. Greenwood St.

Mr. Mattie Henderson, enroute home to Waxahatchie, Texas from Kansas City, spent Monday with her sister Miss Theodora Cunningham.

DIED—Katie Morris, Thursday, Sept. 5, 1918, the 3-year-old daughter of Mrs. Lizzie Richardson, who resides at 511 N. Greenwood street. The funeral will occur Saturday at 2 p. m., from Goodwin and Jackson's Undertaking parlors.

A SPECIAL SOLDIER TRAIN

A special train of soldiers passed through today and during the stop here several hundred people stopped to give them the once over.

WILL BE A SHARPSHOOTER

Mr. Henry Nais, who is at Camp Dodge, sent Mrs. Loula Williams the following letter which is self-explanatory:

Dearest Sister:
I am sending you a card taken when I was going through a "little jim practice." I knocked down eight ducks out of none and made good on the bulls eye, which I am sending to you. Let "chicken" see it, will you?

I did more shooting than I ever did in my life and then made good too, believe me.

From your brother,

H. NAILS.

Co. 1, Dev. Bn. No. 2.
P. S.—From the looks of this I will make a sharp shooter if I get a little more chance.

THEIR LITTLE STUNT WOULDN'T GO

Over in West Tulsa seven or eight of our men are employed each night, reloading coal. Monday night, a crowd of poor White men under the pretense of looking for some one who had robbed a store in the neighborhood, went to the place where the Colored men were working, and after abusing them, proceeded to do some pernicious shooting, etc. with the hope no doubt, of frightening the Colored men away from the job they were on. The Star is glad that the Colored men don't belong to that bunch who are always ready to run at the presence of some White bully. They returned to work Tuesday night prepared for any emergency. The Colored men must start to fighting the devil with fire, and when cheap White men start their Ku Klux Klan methods, hot lead into them.

THEY ARE MARRIED

Miss Ethel Walker and Mr. Tom Carter surprised their friends Wednesday night by joining hands in marriage. These two young people have been very prominent among the young society.

Mrs. Lang and Miss McKellop are visiting their parents at Red Bird. They will return home today.

MR. FLEMING NOT EXPECTED TO LIVE.

News reached here from Joplin, Mo., Wednesday, that Mr. Fleming, a worthy citizen of that place, was not expected to live and summoning his children to come at once. Mrs. Charles Nunley, Mr. Marvin Fleming and Mr. Hayford Fleming, daughter and son left on the Frisco to be at his bedside. The Star trusts that Mr. Fleming is better, and will soon be fully recovered.

"BOXCAR LIZ" GIVEN FREEDOM BY OFFICERS

Beile Everhart, alias "Boxcar Liz," a neegress, who was picked up in the anti-vice campaign, was released Wednesday after an examination revealed that she was not afflicted with a venereal disease. The neegress weighs about 250 pounds, and from this extra avoirdupois gained her "alias." She has spent much of her time in the city jail during the past several months, on various charges.

ENTERTAINED HER SISTER

Mrs. J. A. Anderson entertained Tuesday night at Midway park with a supper in honor of her sister Mrs. J. M. Thompson of Paris, Texas.

Jones, Kansas City; Miss Cornelia Graves, McAlester; Mrs. Annie Nelson, Muskogee; Clarence Williams and A. G. Piron, New Orleans; Lewison Foster, Kansas City; Dr. T. J. Jackson, Claremore; Mrs. Florence Ham, Tulsa; Mr. A. W. G. Sange, Muskogee; Mr. and Mrs. White, Oklahoma City.

A COLORED TEAM MAKES GOOD

William and Pison, high-class entertainers, who have been filling an engagement at the Broadway Theatre, left Wednesday to fill an engagement at the Hippodrome. Mr. Pison is an excellent violinist and Mr. Williams, besides the piano, does a "Black-face Stunt." These young men are rare entertainers, and are composers and music publishers at 1312 Toluene Ave., New Orleans, La.

Below Are Some of Their Hits.

BENEFIT BOXING

Booker-Washington Hospital
Britt Simms, who is in the draft, going over the top for Uncle Sam, will make his last appearance in Tulsa with Billy Brewer, the crack welter-weight from Bryan, Texas will be his opponent. The date set, is Sept. 16, Monday. As Britt is one of the classic boxers seen in this part of the country, and Billy Brewer comes well recommended, Rough House Ware says that he is burning to see the fight. The boys will begin training in the evening at the Old Ball Park, the same place where the Langford and Ware contest took place.

The Colored people are taking much interest in the CLEAN UP move that Billy McClain has started, and they are calling on him daily to see that their next door neighbor keeps his place clean. You see Mr. McClain early in the morning awaiting to see some one throw something in the alleys. He caught quite a number, and warned them, so a word to the wise is sufficient. Bill says they must "come clean" and that to the fight fans means a guarantee. Boxing to help out for the Booker-Washington Hospital.

Grand Master E. D. Jefferson of Muskogee, was in the city today from Claremore where he left his wife for a two weeks stay for her health.

Mrs. J. B. Stradford spent several days in Oklahoma City the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Harrison who will, in the future reside in Chicago. This state is losing one of the most representative families by Judge Harrison deciding to locate in the in the Windy City, and he carries with him the best wishes of the entire race.

Mr. Robert Finch, an extensive dealer in meats at Beggs, Okla., was here recently and sold many of our merchants. This gentleman has built up a business which is a credit to our race.

Mrs. Emma Goodnow a popular lady of Edwauka, Okla., is in the city looking after the Gurley Hotel, while Mrs. Gurley is attending the National Baptist Convention at St. Louis.
